

2014 Travel Wish List

Chile: Liz Caskey suggests VIK Millahue

Estancia Vik and Playa Vik are easily the most chic hotels in Uruguay, and arguably responsible for putting José Ignacio on the map. Now their savvy art collector owner is expanding west, opening a top-notch hotel during next year's harvest in April. Caskey, who puts together some of the best food- and wine-centric itineraries in Chile and beyond, calls it "one of the most ambitious wine projects in South America," with vineyards encompassing the entire Millahue Valley and under the watch of esteemed consultant Patrick Valette, that produce a Bordeaux-style blend that is "so elegant, silky and balanced." Visitors can also tour artisan olive oil producers and private biodynamic wineries in the nearby Colchagua Valley, and take private yoga classes. Book through Liz Caskey Culinary & Wine Experiences.